Sazerac Bar & Restaurant Imagine a late-night hangout that serves hot fresh gumbo, jambalaya, étouffée and crispy fried shrimp, along with beignets and a wide selection of New Orleans classics. It's the only restaurant on the Bourbon Trail to serve breakfast, with pancakes, eggs and coffee served all day. The walls are covered with photos of the city's landmarks and there is even a sculpture of an old New Orleans street lamp out front. Sazerac Bar & Restaurant has been around for 26 years and it's a dependably popular hangout for both tourists and locals. # index d0c515b9f4
